About Maribor

Beautiful little fairytale in Štajerska

Maribor is the second-largest city in Slovenia with about 96,000 inhabitants in 2015. It is also the largest city of the traditional region of Lower Styria and the seat of the City Municipality of Maribor. It is the economic, cultural, scientific research, congress and a complete tourist center of northeast Slovenia. It is also a traffic center, as it is on the crossroads from west to east and southern Europe, just 11 km from the Austrian border. It has a continental position at 275 meters above sea level lying between Pohorje, Slovene hills and Kozjak on the gravelly terraces of the River Drava. Or more simply said: it lies in the green embrace of Pohorje and the wine growing hills along the river Drava. Maribor, the capital of Štajerska, is one of the sunniest places in Slovenia. As the second largest Slovene city it offers all that its citizens need. The green surroundings give the opportunity for a quick hop to the top of Pohorje on the one side and wine growing hills on the other, or one can roam down by the River Drava, which wends its way through the city.

This small city, embraced by rural surroundings, certainly contributes to making you feel well. You can also hear us rambling over the wine growing hills; these raise, so to speak, from the center of the city where we also have the oldest vine in the world, the symbol of our wine culture. We also enjoy beer - if you want to please us then just mention that there is no beer like Laško, and that it can't possibly be compared with Union, beer produced in Ljubljana. You could say there is some rivalry between Maribor and Ljubljana, especially in football and beer
